

Appendix 2
Organizational Release Form

Consent Form to Use Case Study

To:

Indian Institute of Materials Management, Pune

This is to declare that I, the undersigned, have read the attached case study titled, in which I, and/or the organization with which I am affiliated, is described. I understand that typically, but not always, IIMM or any of its partners (above) may test the use of this case study in a classroom environment and that as a result of this use, the case study may be modified, but not in a material way.

Authors

On the basis of my review of the attached case study, I agree that it may be used as outlined above. I agree that the case study does not require changes, except as noted in its content. I further agree that IIMM, in its sole discretion, may change the case study from time to time to correct semantic errors and to rearrange paragraphs, exhibits, etc.

On behalf of my company and myself personally, I agree that other changes may be made to this case study from time to time by IIMM, to enhance its use in a classroom environment and agree that (please check one) I do / I do not wish to review such changes.

On behalf of my company and myself personally, I

- a. Hereby authorize the use of this case study by IIMM, and other educational institutions and other organizations
- b. Acknowledge that the copyright for this case study is held by IIMM (Pune) and its partner(s), and that IIMM may at its sole discretion, distribute, sell, authorize use of this case study in a book or otherwise deal with this case study in whatever way it deems appropriate.

I have authority to execute this agreement.
